

DAVE WILLIAMS

Dave Williams just recently retired from Northwest Natural where he was Vice President of Utility Services and Co-Chair of the Labor Relations Team. His career spanned 38 years at NW Natural. In addition to his role with Oregon Energy Fund, Mr. Williams also served on numerous community and civic organizations. He is the past chair of the following organizations, Oregon Workforce Investment Board, Portland's Clean and Safe District, The Citizen Crime Commission, Multnomah County Homeless Youth Oversight Committee and the Salvation Army. He also serves on the National Advisory Board of ACT. He is married to Denice and resides in Salem.

SCOTT BOLTON

Scott Bolton is Vice President of External Affairs and Customer Solutions at Pacific Power. He is responsible for the company's regional customer and community engagement, government and public affairs, customer programs, marketing and economic development for Oregon, Washington and California.

Prior to joining PacifiCorp in 2004, Bolton worked for a large public affairs firm as senior account manager and lobbyist. He has also held positions as director of government affairs for a broadband services firm, and previously worked as a congressional aide for U.S. Sen. Ron Wyden. During his more than five years with Wyden, he served in a number of capacities, including managing the senator's Central Oregon field office in Bend.

Bolton earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Portland State University, received a master's degree in business administration from Marylhurst University, and completed Willamette University's graduate utility management program.

He is an active member in the business and nonprofit communities, serving on the boards of directors for the Oregon Business Association and the Association of Washington Business, and is a Marylhurst University trustee. Bolton is also an American Leadership Forum of Oregon senior fellow.

Bolton served on active duty as an intelligence analyst in the U. S. Army and the Oregon Army National Guard. He is PacifiCorp's representative to the Employers in Support of the Guard and Reserves program, which helps employees transition between military service and civilian life. Bolton lives in Portland, Ore., with his wife, Trudi Traister.

CAROL DILLIN

Carol Dillin is responsible for customer growth opportunities, leveraging emerging technologies, innovative customer solutions and other potential ventures related to PGE's core energy business. Her division includes PGE's Retail Strategy & Development, Business & Economic Development, Customer Program Management, Customer Program Support, and the Business Customer Group.

During her nearly three decades at PGE, she has served in a variety of capacities, including vice president of Public Policy, director of Corporate Communications & Community Affairs and president of the PGE Foundation.

Dillin serves on the board of the BEST Foundation. She also serves on the Business Advisory Committee at Portland State University and is a board member of the PGE Foundation. She currently serves as the C-Chair for the Edison Electric Institute's Electrification Task Force, as well as Chairperson for the annual Marketing Executives Conference. In 2002, Dillin received the William Marsh Lifetime Achievement Award for public relations leadership and expertise by the Public Relations Society of America – Columbia-Willamette Chapter.

Dillin is a graduate of the University of Oregon with bachelor's degrees in journalism and Spanish.