Regional Water Providers

An Overview

Fabiola Casas
Portland Water Bureau
March 14, 2019

Quick facts about the Regional Water Providers Consortium

- Formed in 1997

- Serves Multnomah, Clackamas and Washington counties

- Made up of 22 water providers

- Work focused on: Conservation, Emergency Preparedness and Regional Coordination

PORTLAND WATER BUREAU
FROM FOREST TO FAUCET

Consortium members and regional water sources

Water Provider	Water Source(s)	Assistance Programs
Beaverton	Tualatin and Trask Rivers
Cornelius	Tualatin and Trask Rivers
Gladstone	Clackamas River	Low Income Water/Sewer Program
Hillsboro	Tualatin and Trask Rivers	Customer Assistance Program (administered through Salvation Army)
Milwaukie	Groundwater
Portland	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)	Financial Assistance Program
Rockwood Water PUD	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)	Payment Assistance
Sherwood	Willamette River
Sunrise Water Authority	Clackamas River	Limited, short-term payment arrangements
Tualatin	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)
Tualatin Valley Water District	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field), Tualatin and Trask Rivers	Partner with assistance program Care to Share

Water Provider	Water Source(s)	Assistance Programs
Clackamas River Water	Clackamas River
Forest Grove	Tualatin and Trask Rivers
Gresham	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)	Customer Assistance Program, Helping Hands funds through city
Lake Oswego	Clackamas River
Oak Lodge Water Services	Clackamas River	Low-Income Utility Rate Relief Program
Raleigh Water District	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)
Sandy	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)
South Fork Water Board	Clackamas River
Tigard	Clackamas River
Troutdale	Groundwater
West Slope Water District	Bull Run Watershed (Columbia South Shore Well Field)

Potential water provider benefits for you and your communities

- Education and community enrichment

- Conservation devices

- Quality reports and services

- Rebates and leak adjustments

- Career opportunities

- Translation services

PORTLAND WATER BUREAU
FROM FOREST TO FAUCET